ted States, North-West of the Ohio' to the best of my understanding and ability," and it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to meet at Cincinnati, between the first and the tenth day of November next, of which meeting three weeks previous notice shall be given by them in a public new-paper printed at Cincinnati; and they or a majority of them, to meet, shall not adjourn to any other place, or for a longer time, than three days until they have finally completed the business of their said appointment, and they or any two of them, shall have power to hear and decide in a summary manner, all matters respecting all such claims of which notice may have been filed, pursuant to the third section of this act, also to administer oaths, and examine witnesses, and all such other testimony as may be adduced, and to determine thereon according to justice and equity; which determination shall be final, and when it shall appear to them that the claimant is entitled to the right of pre-emption, on the terms aforesaid, they shall give a certificate thereof, stating as accurately as may be, the quantity and local situation of the lands to which he may be entitled, directed to the register of the land office at Cincinnati, or when the said register may be a claimant to the surveyor general, copies of which certificates shall be by them recorded in a book to be provided for that purpose and deposited for safe keeping with the register of the land office.

be run to intersect the aforesaid northwardly and southwardly lines, in the corresponding marked points.

2. And the residue of the said tract lying north of the aforesaid southern boundary of the seventh entire range, shall be laid off into sections, according to such uniform rule and method as in the opinion of the Surveyor General, shall best secure the rights and interest of those, who are entitled to pre-emption.

3. Such division shall be made of sections, according to the claim of such who obtain pre-emption right, and the contents of each and every section, and such division thereof, shall be ascertained, and the Surveyor General shall prepare and transmit a plan thereof, to the aforesaid register, immediately after the said survey shall be completed, and also forward a copy thereof to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, that all persons availing themselves of a pre-emption under this act, shall make application for a section or any part or parts of a section or sections, according to the estimated quantity of six hundred and forty acres to a section, and the amount of the excess or deficiency shall be added to or deducted from the last payment, and the purchaser shall make payment for and hold the quantity returned and expressed in the plats, let the quantity be more or less.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, that the duties of the surveyor-general, of the aforesaid Register, and receiver of public monies, as nearly as may be consistent with this act shall respectively be the same, as directed in and by the last recited act, and the fees and emoluments shall respectively be the same, as provided in the said act last recited.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, that after completing the surveys agreeably to this act, reserving the lots marked sixteen in each township, or fractional part of a township in which the same may be, for the purposes expressed in the ordinance of congress of the twentieth of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty five, the residue of the lands, and so many of the aforesaid pre-emptions, as shall become forfeited by reason of failures of payment, shall be sold agreeably to the last recited act.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, that this act shall have full operation and effect, any thing in any former law to the contrary notwithstanding.

European Intelligence.

Germany.

AUGSBURG, February 4.

By a letter of a late date, from Cracow we are informed, that the Russian army in Wolhynia and Podolia has suddenly begun to march towards Moldavia and Turkey in Europe. The affirmation of the two Russian officers, by the Turkish soldiery at Constantinople, &c. the declaration lately made to the Porte by the Russian minister, may serve to explain this movement, which was not unexpected.

England.

LONDON, March 4.

The Austrian ambassador at Berlin, had received orders to propose alliance between the courts of Vienna and Berlin, tending to the welfare of Germany; and has received the most favorable assurances from the emperor of Russia, and hopes are entertained that a good understanding between the courts will be re-established in consequence thereof.

Scotland.

GLASGOW, March 7.

In the note transmitted by order of his Prussian majesty to lord Garsfort, our ambassador at Berlin, his Prussian majesty does not hesitate to declare his accession to the convention concluded at Petersburg on the 16th of December between Russia, Denmark and Sweden; that he will take a direct share in all the events which interest the cause of the neutral powers, and maintain that connexion by such powerful measure as the impulse of circumstances may require, and that, it is only by entirely taking off the embargo, laid by Britain, on Danish and Swedish vessels, affairs can be brought to their former situation. His Prussian majesty, with distinguished modesty, asserts, that there exist discussions between the courts of Petersburg and London, which have by no means any thing to do with the business which Britain has interwoven with it. After such an intimation, fearfully a doubt remains what part the court of Berlin will take in this momentous question; and how ever much to be lamented, not a doubt remains what must be the conduct of our government; we indeed have no choice, our existence as a naval power, depends upon decision. That neutral ships may carry neutral cargoes, is what none will deny; but that free ships make free goods, as the convention of the northern powers maintains, is so repugnant to common sense, that we trust these trampers upon maritime policy will soon repent of their temerity.

The convoy for the Elbe has, at the request of several ship owners, been detained from sailing until Sunday forenoon next. Yesterday, 7 vessels arrived at Grangemouth with grain.

During last week arrived at Liverpool, 22,315 barrels of flour and 6,430 quarters of wheat.

From the Mediterranean.

Captain Lovett, arrived here yesterday from Alicante, informing, that he fell in with the French squadron, which escaped from Brest, about twenty leagues on the Barbary coast, bound for the Mediterranean; and that he spots an American vessel who had been boarded by the above squadron, and treated politely. Captain Lovett further informs, that the United States ship George Washington, captain Bainbridge, had returned from Constantinople, to Algiers, and after tarrying there a short time was suffered to proceed home, she brought a number of French prisoners from that place to Alicante, and sailed from thence with the Rover, and several other American vessels, which he conveyed. The crew were in good health. All American vessels bound up the Mediterranean are compelled to ride quarantine for forty days, before they are permitted to enter any port. Since the rupture between England and the northern powers upwards of three hundred sail of Swedish and Danish vessels have been sent into Gibraltar.

SQUIRREL HUNT.

On the 8th inst. the citizens of the counties of Mercer and Lincoln, had a hunting match, for a barbacue. The match was to have been 25 hunters on each side, but only about 20 on a side met; in the course of the day, they killed 5,442 squirrels, and bets were offered that the same company could kill double that number the day following. We have the above information from one of the party.

A small schooner, built at Brownsville, on the Monongahela, passed some days ago; it had neither sails, rigging or masts, but was to be fitted out at New-Orleans.

On Sunday last, arrived off this town, the new brig St. Clair, commanded by capt. Whipple; and passed the Falls on the same day without the least accident.

GLEANINGS.

LONDON, March 4.

Capture of the Kent, East Indian.

It is with great concern we announce the capture of the Kent, East Indian, in the Bay of Bengal, on the 7th of October, off the Sand Heads, by the Comantee, French privateer, of 26 guns and 250 men, after an obstinate engagement of near one hour and 45 minutes, in which Capt. Rivington, of the Kent, was unfortunately killed bravely defending the company's property, till the last moment of his existence, when he exclaimed, "do not give up the ship." Mr. Cator, a free merchant, also fell, covered with wounds. All the surviving passengers who were able to be moved were put on board an Arab, and landed in Calcutta.

HOUSE OF LORDS.

The Earl of Suffolk said, he observed there was no report from the committee, on the high price of provisions; that considering the state of the country, he was extremely sorry to observe the delay in receiving the report, and if any lord belonging to the committee were then present, he would be glad to be informed of the cause of the delay.

The Duke of Athol (who is a member of the committee) said they were proceeding with all the diligence and attention possible, but deferred a report till they could lay a general view of the subject before the house.

Lord Suffolk said the price of bread was daily rising, and with it all other necessaries; that he apprehended the vast influx of paper currency was the great cause of it. He therefore meant to propose a measure to prevent the payment of any paper except that of the bank of England.

The Duke of Athol called the noble lord to order, and said it was utterly unprecedented to introduce a measure of that extreme importance, without a regular notice.

Earl Fitzwilliam said his noble friend was perfectly in order, and in fact did no more than intimate, in a liberal manner, a measure he might think it necessary to bring forward after seeing the report of the committee.

Lord Romney (who is also a member of the committee) said they were proceeding with all possible dispatch, but were unwilling to adopt any hasty and partial measures. Too much had been already seen of the mischief of adopting a partial and hasty measure (alluding to the brown bread bill) and therefore he deprecated any prelude of the business.

NORTHERN CONFEDERACY.

The following is the answer of Baron Ehrenward to the notification of Lord Grenville, of the 15th of January, stating that an embargo had been laid on the Danish and Swedish ships in England.

"The undersigned Minister Plenipotentiary of his Imperial Swedish Majesty received the official notification, by which his excellency Lord Grenville, first minister of state, signified to the undersigned that his Britannic Majesty had ordered an embargo to be laid on all the Swedish ships in the harbors within his dominions. So unexpected an event between powers who were in relations of friendship towards each other, was received with astonishment by his imperial majesty, who was not only unconscious of having given his Britannic majesty the least cause of complaint, but on the contrary, was entitled to have demanded indemnification for repeated aggressions. Actuated by this reflection, he rather expected that the notification was transmitted with the view to bury his grievances in oblivion than to give occasion for fresh ones, which would renew the remembrance of the past.

"As the English court has stated as the ground of this notification, that a maritime convention was in contemplation it would doubtless have acted with more justice, had it waited for an official communication from the Swedish Court, which it most assuredly would, in proper time, have received, of a convention, which is considered in so odious a point of view, as to urge it to an act of violence against a court, whose connection with England nothing else could have disturbed. As the dispute between the English and Russian courts related to the Island of Malta, and the declaration of the Danish court referred to the convention of 1780, the undersigned can see no just reason why the court of Sweden, which had given no cause of complaint to the English, and from which no other declaration was required than what related to the note of the 31st December, which has but just been received should be attacked in so hostile a manner, before any answer had been given to the insinuations contained in that note.

"The undersigned, who imparted the contents of the note of his excellency Lord Grenville to his court, is obliged, in conformity to the orders of his majesty, to protest, as far as by the present acts he can formally protest against the embargo laid on the Swedish ships, and to protest that it may be thereby occasioned. He demands in the most forcible and expressive terms, that in pursuance of the stipulation of the treaty of 1661, the embargo can no otherwise be considered than as a designed and premeditated declaration of war on the part of England.

"The undersigned, whom the expression of the desire of the British court could not escape, observes, in the hostile determinations by which it is accompanied, only a desire to give his Imperial Majesty cause of complaint, as well by the detention of the convoy, as in respect to the affair of Barcelona. He wished the British court had confirmed the truth of its assurances by its actions, in which case this court would have been actuated by corresponding sentiments.

The undersigned has the honor, &c.
(Signed) "Baron Von Ehrenward."

BALTIMORE, April 15.

Dreadful Conflagration.

The house belonging to, and occupied by Col. Rogers, in Market Street, was this morning, together with the whole of its contents, reduced to a pile of ruins. The fire it appears was kindled by the hands of a villainous incendiary, in the cellar, immediately under the main stair case, and so completely were his diabolical plans executed, although something of the kind from his threats, was suspected, that the foremen and lamentations of those within and who escaped with the utmost difficulty from the flames, saving only their linen, were the first intimations their neighbors had of the dreadful catastrophe. The main stair case, and the whole interior of the house below, were enveloped in flames when the family awoke. The children, and those who slept in the back building, reached the first floor by the back stair case, and got out of the back windows—those in the front buildings were saved by precipitating themselves out of the second floor windows. Before the alarm became general, or the necessary assistance could arrive, it was beyond the power of human exertions to save the least article in the house, and the greatest efforts of the citizens, which were conspicuous on the occasion, aided by a fortunate calm, could alone have wrested from destruction the adjoining buildings, especially the elegant house belonging to Mr. Tiernan, which was thrice on fire. Never was that destructive element more uncontrolled, or have more complete—cash, books, furniture, plate, apparel, &c. &c. were alike involved in indiscriminate ruin, and a considerable sum which Col. Rogers had in a pocket book in his coat pocket, received too late the evening before to be put into the bank—even that he was unable to save. The fire was discovered about 7 o'clock, and raged till past 5, before it could be so completely extinguished as to be no longer dangerous.

THE SUBSCRIBERS

HAVE the satisfaction of informing their customers and others, that in consequence of an arrangement made by JOHN JORDAN JUN. they will be enabled to purchase the following articles of produce this season, viz.

HEMP, WHEAT, FLOUR,

AND TOBACCO.

For which they will give such prices as their present engagements and prospect will justify, which they hope will be found as liberal as any.

But as they have undertaken this business with prospects indeed, too trifling even to compensate them for their services, they hope at least, to meet with better encouragement than what has heretofore been allotted by the Planters and Farmers of this State, to those who exported their Produce, and that a proper distinction will be made in favor of them, who, at all times have exerted themselves to embrace every opportunity of serving the Planters, &c.

It is with the utmost reluctance they take notice of an incontrovertible truth, that so far from meeting the encouragement that they had the mortification to find that a preference was at all times given (unless when payment was made in produce) to others, who sold for cash only—in consequence of which, they had determined to pursue the same system of preference (that is now so loudly complained of by the Citizens at large, to long as it endures) their competitors should either be obliged to undergo the same risk and trouble, or the Farmer and Planter take a more extensive view of their real interest—but being anxious to avoid their proportion of general censure, and to make their occupation as useful as possible, they have once more receded from their resolution, determined to purchase the productions of the soil, and trust to the liberality of the Farmer and Planter, to obviate those complaints in future.

The conditions on which they intend to take produce, are, the Cash Prices of the several articles.—In return, they will continue to sell their goods at their usual low prices, for Cash or Produce. Those who may have more Produce than would be convenient for them to take in Goods, shall receive Cash, by allowing a reasonable credit, but no payments will be made either in Goods or Cash, until the delivery of the articles, and it is further expected that none will solicit an advance, as it is impossible for them (in consequence of the numerous disappointments heretofore experienced) either to discriminate, or to deviate from this rule.

SACRED TO THE MUSES.

GOOD HUMOUR.

OF pride and mad ambition we complain,
Debauchery and dissipation, in vain
Ill temper's baneful influence o'er the mind
More pain creates, than all those ill's combined;
Bids social love in every bosom cease,
And clouds the beams of heaven's celestial peace:
Blush all the joys that bloom to sweeten life,
Enliven happiness, and lengthen life;
To calm the troubled breast, to lull to sleep,
To stop the tear of mortals' anguish to flow,
He, who furrows our griefs with pitying eye,
Sent down the nymph Good Humour from the sky.
Her beauteous presence banishes perpetual day,
The loves and graces in her person play;
The opening flow'r blooms sweeter where she treads,
The faded flowers lift anew their heads;
The lovely seraph waves her purple wing,
Diffusing all the balmy sweets of spring;
Beflowers fresh beauties on the blooming vale,
And pours forth fragrance on the spicy gale.
Observe the mansion where Good Humour dwells,
What lovely joys each blissful bosom feels!
The cheerful, happy flatterer, to see
His playful wifely prattle round his knee;
While the fond partner of his heart believes
That joy which only from Good Humour flows.

ANECDOTE.

Fine times, Jenny; I hear your Master has grown quite independent. To be sure he is; and how can he help that; for he has nothing to depend upon? But I mean that he is rich, and lives merely on the interest of his money; for the Principal has been gone this long time, to my knowledge.

FRESH SUPPLY.

MACBEAN & POYZER,
Have just received from Lee & Co's FAMILY and MEDICINE WARE-HOUSE, Baltimore, a Large Supply of the most Celebrated

MEDICINES:

Price 1 dollar per packet,
Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges,

Which have, within two years past, given relief to thousands of INFANTS and CHILDREN, of all ages, in various dangerous complaints, arising from worms and from worms or obstruction in the stomach and bowels. The peculiar efficacy of this remedy is, its being suited to every age and constitution; contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so acted in its operation, that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old; should no worms exist in the bowels—but without pain or griping excites the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive; and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infect the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz. the Taenia or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small pin worm; and lastly, the Taenia, or tape worm, so called from its resemblance to tape; this is often many yards long, and is full of joints—it is most hurtful, and most difficult to cure.

Among the symptoms attending worms, are, disagreeable breath, especially in the morning—bad and corrupted gums—itching in the nose and about the head—convulsions and epileptic fits, and sometimes protrusion of spleen—starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep—irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious—Purging with flimsy and fatty stools—Vomiting—Large and hard belly—Pains and sickness at the stomach—Pains in the head and thighs, with looseness of spirits—Slow fever with small and irregular pulse—A dry cough—Excessive thirst—Sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness, having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

We shall give occasionally, an account of cures effected from a number of persons in this State.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

For Cleaning and Cleaning the FACE and SKIN.

Infallible Ague & Fever Drops,

For the cure of Ague, remittent and intermittent Fevers.

Thousands can testify of their being cured by these drops, after the bark and every other medicine has proved ineffectual; and not one in a hundred has had occasion to take more than one and numbers not half a bottle.

These drops are particularly recommended to the inhabitants of low marshy countries, where the worst sort of ague generally prevails, which unless early attended to and speedily removed, injures the constitution exceedingly, and brings on dropsies, putrid fevers, and a variety of complaints, of the most dangerous and alarming nature. Many other medicines are daily offered to the public for the cure of this disorder, which, upon trial have been found either dangerous or useless. The bark is the only remedy made use of, but being a very nauseous medicine, and seldom taken in sufficient quantity, it is very often fatal; and children, and those who have weak stomachs, are frequently lost for want of a more easy and pleasant remedy.

Price 75 cents per box,
The Sovereign Ointment for the Itch,

Which is warranted an infallible remedy to all application, and may be used with the most perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury, or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and is not accompanied with that tormenting nature, which attends the application of other remedies.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN CURE.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, it recommends

Price 1 dollar and 50 cents per bottle,
Dr. Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills,

Which have been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern of the United States, particularly in Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons in each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy, has under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration, and thereby drive out colds, and prevent the fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold, if taken on its first appearance.—They are celebrated for removing habitual constipation—flatulency at the stomach, and severe head aches—and ought to be taken by persons on a change of climate.

An infallible remedy for Corns, speedily removing their root and branch, without giving pain.

Price 1 dollar per bottle,
Dr. Hahn's Genuine Eye Water,
